Polling Places

Polling places can vary from election to election. If Adrian Public Schools is holding a Special Election, and no other jurisdiction within the Adrian Public School District is holding an election, all voters vote at the Lenawee County Fairgrounds. This election would be run by the Adrian City Clerk. If another jurisdiction within the district is holding an election, along with the Adrian Public Schools, then voters vote at their regular precinct. That local clerk would run the election.