General School Administration

Management Team

The Superintendent is the administrative head of the school system and must organize available resources. He/she must delegate duties and authority, and supervise such delegated tasks and those individuals to whom authority has been assigned. It is expected that he/she will select a team in such a way that an effective and efficient operation of the school system will be achieved. Teamwork, councils, and committees shall be an integral part of the administrative organization.

Adopted: February 16, 1970
Revised: October 5, 2009