V. Student Code of Conduct- Definitions of Consequences

The use of corporal punishment is prohibited by state law and Board Policy 5206. Below are possible disciplinary consequences to address student behavior. District administration will determine the appropriate consequences to address student behavior based on various factors, including the severity of the offense.

A . Conference

Face-to-face meetings or telephone conferences with the student, parents/guardians, and school personnel. (teacher and/or administrator)

B. Contract (student/parent/administration)

Contract developed by the student, parent/guardian, teacher, and/or administrator, which outlines corrective steps to be taken by the student, and consequences if the student fails to comply.

C. Removal from Class

The student is temporarily denied participation in a specific class, program, or school activity.

D. Detention

Detaining or holding back a student before/after school or during lunch for a specific period.

E. Expulsion

“Expel” or “Expulsion” means a disciplinary removal from school for 60 or more days.

The Board may suspend or expel a student for an offense identified in the student code of conduct if the code of conduct states that the Violation may result in suspension or expulsion. Before exercising this authority, the Board must consider all of the following factors:

- The student’s age;
- The student’s disciplinary history;
- Whether the student has a disability;
- The seriousness of the behavior;
- Whether the behavior posed a safety risk;
- Whether restorative practices are a better option; and
- Whether lesser interventions would address the behavior.

F. Out of School Suspension

“Suspend” or “Suspension” means a disciplinary removal from school for less than 60 school days.

- The student’s age;
- The student’s disciplinary history;
- Whether the student has a disability;
- The seriousness of the behavior;
- Whether the behavior posed a safety risk;
- Whether restorative practices are a better option; and
- Whether lesser interventions would address the behavior.

G. In-School Suspension

Temporary denial to a student of attendance in classes; suspension will be served in school.

H. Restorative Practices

“Restorative Practices” means practices that emphasize repairing the harm to the victim and the school community caused by a student’s misconduct.

VI. Discipline Procedures

Nothing in this Section is intended, nor shall be applied, to diminish any rights under federal or state law of a pupil who has been determined to be eligible for special education programs and services.

Below is a list of potential consequences for various offense levels. The information below is general and does not account for every situation. The administration reserves the right to impose more significant discipline for an offense if the particular circumstances, including the severity of the offense, warrant more significant discipline. Likewise, the District may determine that restorative practices are a better option than a disciplinary removal in a particular situation.

Level 1

- A. A conference with the parties involved will be held.
- B. At administrative discretion, any or all of the following consequences may be assigned:
 - 1. Warning
 - 2. Detention
 - 3. Parent Conference
 - 4. Alternative Discipline
 - 5. One (1) to three (3) school days for In-school Suspension
 - 6. One (1) to three (3) school days for Out-of-School Suspension
 - 7. Parent contract agreement
- C. Parent (s) will be notified of the action taken.

Level 2

- A. A conference with the parties involved will be held.
- B. At administrative discretion, any or all of the following consequences may be assigned:
 - 1. Detention/Removal from class
 - 2. Alternative discipline
 - 3. Up to five (5) school days for In-School Suspension
 - 4. Up to five (5) school days for Out-of-School Suspension
- C. Parents(s) will be notified of the action taken.

Level 3

- A. A conference with the parties involved will be held.
- B. At administrative discretion, any or all of the following consequences may be assigned:
 - 1. Up to ten (10) school days for Out-of-School Suspension
 - 2. Alternative Discipline
 - 3. A referral to the appropriate police authorities, if criminal activity occurred
- C. Parent (s) will be notified of the action taken.

Level 4

- A. A conference with the parties involved will be held.
- B. At administrative discretion, any or all of the following consequences may be assigned:
 - 1. Ten (10) school days for Out-of-School Suspension
 - 2. Alternative Discipline
 - 3. A recommendation for long-term suspension or expulsion, which may be referred to the Superintendent or Board, as appropriate.
 - 4. A referral to appropriate police authorities, If criminal activity occurred.
- C. Parent (s) will be notified of the action taken.

Level 5

- A. A conference with the parties involved will be held.
- B. The following consequences will be assigned:
 - 1. A mandatory ten (10) school days Out-of-School Suspension
 - 2. Alternative Discipline
 - 3. A disciplinary hearing will be held. A recommendation for long-term suspension or expulsion will be sent to the Superintendent of Schools for presentation to the Board of Education.
- C. Parent (s) will be notified of the action taken.

Reinstatement Following Suspension or Expulsion

It is the policy of the Board to consider a petition for reinstatement from an expelled student and the parent/guardian and to follow the requirements of sections 1311 and 1311a of the Revised School Code.

Consequence levels are based upon the grade level of the offending student. The administration can increase or decrease from the guidelines below based on the severity of the offense and other pertinent factors of the situation.
